alaskaWILD is the most prestigious annual juried photo exhibit featuring the natural beauty of Alaska and its wilderness. It is sponsored by the Alaska Society of Outdoor and Nature Photographers. Its main goals are to celebrate the unique beauty and wildness of Alaska and to promote local amateur and professional photographers. 35 images selected from over 200 entries by Alaskan photographers, it is the only state wide juried exhibition solely dedicated to nature photography. Unlike many juried exhibits, the images in this exhibit are available for sale.

Exhibit runs through March 31, 2010.
